Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Maurice and Madonna Alley exchanged their wedding vows on August 17, 1944, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, The newly-wed couple of 60 years ago has been replaced by two devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow, and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

Whereas, Maurice and Madonna gave life and love to ten children: Richard, Marie, Patrick, Michael, Marcia, Margaret, Pamela, Maureen, Randall, and Jacqueline, who in turn presented them with thirty-six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Maurice and Madonna have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 17, 2004, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
